

Under this new policy, _____ would be limited to purchasing just one copy of a new e-book for the first 8 weeks after it releases.

Right now, we buy enough copies of books so that our patrons only have to wait about _____ at the most to borrow them.

Embargos would seriously limit our ability to keep wait times as short as possible.

For example, after _____ months on our Top 5 e-books list, _____ patrons are still waiting to get our copies for the bestseller
_____.

To meet that demand, we purchased _____ copies. Had we only had one copy, it is very likely that our patrons would wait up to _____ or more.

#eBooks*ForAll

ALA American Library Association